

TAY-SF NOW LOOKING FOR YOUNG LEADERS

“ this journey does not end up in prison, or another body in the streets of San Francisco. After a few calls with the law, and his life, Xavier realized that there has to be a better way to push his message on a more social and activist level. He needed to find the true meaning of painting for the people. This was found in the power of Muralism. This would be his Tao. His Yin and Yang. For lack of a better word, his inner way... ”
